

I find it upsetting that my favorite radio Station K-Love in SA may be terminated. It is a station that sets my tone for the day and is enjoyed by many in our community even with the station is weak. I would like for this decision to be reconsidered because of the lack of Christian radio stations in our area.